pet adoption fund

Devoted to our homeless animals

A Non-profit Organization Founded in 1983

Dear Friend,

The joys and sweetness of the holiday season are upon us. Yet for too many wonderful pets, the uncertainties can be anything but joyous. Shelters and rescues are crowded these days as both pure- and mixed-breed dogs and cats are relinquished and abandoned every day through no fault of their own. Financial, medical and living situations are just some of the reasons animals so often end up homeless. So won't you consider making a difference and adding one--or one more--sweet companion into your life? A rescued pet is a grateful pet and will give you unconditional love for the rest of its life. Additionally, every pet placement we make opens up a spot to rescue and save another. With your help we can continue our mission to help these wonderful souls live their best lives.

Asher

Here are just a few of the lives that have been changed thanks to your support:

Asher: This sweet, goofy boy loved everyone he met. But for a time his ability to jump fences kept him from finding a proper dwelling. Fortunately, a woman with a secure environment saw that special something in him, and Asher is now safe and thoroughly loved in the right home.

Raisin

Raisin: A beautiful girl rescued with two sisters, this cat's intense shyness deterred her from being adopted. Our volunteers worked with her continually, and one day a thoughtful person decided to give her the opportunity to shine. Raisin now lives and thrives with people and felines who love her for who she is.

Kano: This is a truly special dog, as smart and sweet as they come. But as one of many available shepherds, he needed a bit more patience to find a loving home. It all paid off when the perfect family picked him to be their one and only, and he is now living his best life. Way to go, Kano!

Kano

Trinket: Rescued with his mom and litter mates, this boy had visual impairment that needed medical attention. He received the best of care with us and is now safe in his new home, enjoying life with a forever family including another cat to guide him and show him the way.

As always we are beyond grateful for your tax-deductible donations during the holidays and all year long. We simply could not help these and our other homeless pets without your help.

Take care and have a wonderful holiday season!
