Dear Friend,

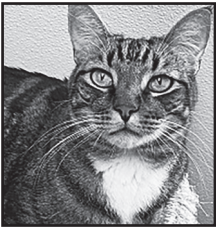

As we all head further into fall, we at Pet Adoption Fund look back fondly on our summer months—and for good reason. They were especially bright for a number of our pets who found forever homes as part of a pair. We're always excited when a dog or cat goes home with a new family, but placing duos is double the fun! We know many of you don't have room for two, but please think about adding just one precious fur baby to your home this season. For inspiration, here are sweet stories of some recently placed twosomes.

Bubbles

Bubbles & Mittens: These terrific tabby brothers knew they struck gold when they came to our no-kill rescue. Sure enough, they didn't wait long to find their new parents, who were looking for an older bonded pair. Purrfect match!

Joanna & Dumbo: They were a couple of adorable seniors who patiently waited their turn. Never separated, Joanna was shy and depended on Dumbo for her confidence. Now she rules the roost at their new home—a happy ending for both of them.

Mittens

Jarritos & Steve-O: What fun these boys had as they ran and played in our free-roaming kitty room. They certainly entertained everyone during their stay with us. Now they're in a forever home with a family who loves them. Way to go guys!

Sam & Disney: These shepherd girls really hit the jackpot: a super new home together where they get along like they were siblings all along. Such a wonderful result for this darling duo.

Joanna

We're always grateful for your tax-deductible donations during the holidays and all year long. We simply could not help our homeless pets without your generosity.

Take care and have a wonderful holiday season!
